

UDNY KIRK

Our beautiful historic kirk is situated in the heart of the small rural hamlet of Udney Green in Aberdeenshire, Scotland. Built in 1821 and designed by the Architect John Smith, its architectural beauty and historic charm create a sense of timelessness that is hard to duplicate. The kirk is privately owned and is available for a wide range of celebrations and events.

ABOUT US

Udney Kirk is now established as a not-for-profit organisation which will enable us to continue to fund our restoration and conservation projects

THANK YOU!

By trusting us to host your event you are also helping to safeguard and preserve a valuable part of Scotland's rich architectural heritage.

A TRULY UNIQUE LOCATION

We are located beside the village green and adjacent to the 13th century Udry Castle in the picturesque Aberdeenshire countryside. Conveniently, we are close to Aberdeen and its International Airport and the country towns of Ellon and Inverurie.
